Introducing new staff at Clarity

Dear parents / care-givers,

I am delighted to announce that Ms Amanda Flint will be joining us on Monday 17th January as our newest HLTA.

She has taught up to GCSE in maths and English to students for many years. She has worked both in safeguarding roles and teaching roles with senior school students and has taught at colleges and adult education for the past 14 years. She has a range of higher level qualifications including DDTLS (Diploma in teaching in the life-long learning sector), as well as being a fully qualified counsellor.

She brings a wealth of experience working with children with a range of SEN and we are excited to welcome her on board, working across the school.

We are also excited to introduce Mrs Juliet Ntalo who will be starting with us as a HLTA on Tuesday 8th February working across the school. She has worked in mainstream schools and with pupils struggling with SEMH issues for the past 6 years and has completed a BA degree in Special Needs and Inclusive Education. We look forward to welcoming her too.

Have a good weekend,

Yours sincerely,
